

HARTPURY HARTPURY FC PERFORMANCE ANALYST

STUDENTSHIP MSC PERFORMANCE ANALYSIS IN SPORT

Hartpury Men's Football Programme are looking for a performance analyst to join their FA National League System team, Hartpury FC for the upcoming 2026-27 season.

The Postgraduate Studentship offers a part-funded place on Hartpury University's MSc Applied Performance Analysis in Sport degree whilst undertaking a year-long placement with Hartpury FC. This is a fantastic opportunity to combine studying a postgraduate degree at one of the top sporting universities in the UK whilst also gaining real world experience in a high-performance football environment. This Studentship can be over one or two years.

STUDENTSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES

- The placement is a minimum of 10 hours per week.
- The placement will require you to start in pre-season (July) through to the end of the season (May).
- Filming and coding of both training sessions and matches, home and away.
- Delivery of individual, unit and team-based analysis sessions.
- Managing the creation and development of individual player/team clip library on Hudl.
- Contributing to projects and reports to the Performance Analysis department.
- Regular communication and engagement with FC Head Coach in ensuring the smooth running of analysis provision at the club.
- Completing your postgraduate research project alongside our university strategic direction with the aim of actively contributing to our evolving postgraduate research and knowledge exchange community and impacting our applied Sports Academy provision.
