Race Equality Policy

Introduction

The Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000 has introduced requirements upon the College to positively promote equality. It is intended that this statement, and reference to other related documents such as the ‘Joint Agreement on Guidance for Equality in Further Education’, will outline the College’s policy and the actions it intends to take in this matter.

Our Commitment

The College celebrates and values the diversity brought to its workforce by individuals, and believes that the College will benefit from engaging staff from a variety of racial, ethnic and national backgrounds, thus allowing it to meet the needs of a diverse student population within a multi-cultural society. The College will treat all employees and students with respect and dignity, and seek to provide a positive working and a learning environment free from racial discrimination, harassment or victimisation.

The College will seek not only to eliminate discrimination, but also to create a working and learning environment based on positive relations between members of different racial groups. To this end, the College undertakes to provide training and support for staff, to consult with black staff about their experience of the working environment, and to provide diverse images in any material which it produces for students and staff. The aim is to create a positive, inclusive ethos where issues of racism, stereotyping and discrimination can be discussed openly with a shared commitment to challenging and preventing racism and discrimination, to respecting diversity and difference, and to encouraging good relations between people of different groups.

The College will work towards the elimination of racism whether overt or covert, and will seek to ensure that individuals and communities have equal access to learning programmes and facilities.

Definitions and Scope

Both institutional and individual racism “can be seen or detected in processes, attitudes and behaviour which amount to discrimination through unwitting prejudice, ignorance, thoughtlessness, and racist stereotyping which disadvantages ethnic minority people.” [Macpherson]

The College recognises that institutional racism can exist, and that no organisation is immune to it.

This policy is applicable to both College staff and student matters.
Our Statutory Duties

Under the Race Relations Act 1976 (as amended by the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000), the College has a general duty to have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful race discrimination
- Promote equality of opportunity
- Promote good relations between people from different racial groups.

It also has specific duties to:

- Prepare and maintain a written race equality policy
- Assess the impact of its policies on students and staff from different racial groups
- Monitor the admission and progress of students and the recruitment and career progress of staff by racial groups
- Set out the College’s arrangements for publishing the results of assessments and monitoring
- Where reasonably practicable publish annually the results of assessments and monitoring.

Meeting Our Duties

We will seek to ensure that:

- Governors, staff, students and their sponsors (including work placement providers) are aware of our racial equality policy and the action needed for its implementation
- Staff, students and their sponsors (including work placement providers) are aware of the value placed upon equal opportunity and that action will be taken in the event of any breach of the policy
- Governors and staff have access to comprehensive information, which assists them to plan, implement and monitor actions to carry out their responsibilities under the policy.

We will also ensure the College’s publicity materials present appropriate and positive messages about minority racial groups.

Monitoring Our Progress

The monitoring process will be used to ensure that members of staff are treated equally in terms of promotion, staff development, grading etc.

To inform the setting of targets and the measurement of our progress in achieving them, we will collect and analyse the following information by racial group origin.

For Students:

- Racial group profiles of students
- Applications, success and failure rates for admission to programmes
- Retention rates
- Achievement rates
- Work placements including success rates, satisfaction levels and job offers
- Disciplinary action
- Complaints by students or their sponsors
- Student surveys.
For Employees:

- Racial group profiles of employees by grade/salary scales and type of work
- Job application rates
- Selection success rates
- Type of contract (permanent, temporary)
- Training/Staff development
- Promotion application and success rates
- Disciplinary/capability proceedings
- Grievances
- Exit surveys.

Positive Action

In specific circumstances, the Act allows positive action as a way of overcoming racial inequality.

Positive action allows the College to:

- Provide facilities or services, in training, education or welfare, to meet the special needs of people from particular racial groups (for example, English language classes).
- Target job training at particular racial groups that are under-represented in a particular area of work.
- Encourage applications from racial groups that are under-represented in particular work areas.

The College undertakes, once the results of monitoring are available, to consider targets to reduce any disadvantage suffered by ethnic minority employees and students. If monitoring reveals that specific racial minority groups are disadvantaged, some targets may relate to those specific groups. The targets will be published annually in an Action Plan.

Positive action strategies are intended to be temporary measures only. They must be kept under regular review and can not be used once the special needs have been met or if the under-representation no longer exists. The College will ensure that when using positive action as a strategy, it falls within the law.
