

Design your own Racing Silks

Jockey silks are very colour and have different patterns and designs so the spectators can tell them apart from the other racers. Using shapes and different colours create your own racing silk below, remember to include a racing number.

Name your Horse

Don't forget to name your racing horse—the name of your horse must be unique, It can be up to 18 characters long, including spaces. It can not contain any horse related term, such as mare or stallion.

My horse is called....
