

True False

I should use a thesaurus when writing my personal statement.	TRUE
You can use bullet points to make information stand out.	FALSE
UCAS use a scanning system called 'Copy Catch' to stop students from plagiarising other's work.	TRUE
Universities do not actually read personal statements.	FALSE
There is a maximum length for a personal statement.	TRUE
UCAS Apply software has automatic spelling and grammar checks so you do not have to worry.	FALSE
You can use bold, italics and underlined characters in the personal statement.	TRUE
Discussing out of school activities is an important part, but only if it is of interest to your course.	TRUE
You can use paragraphs to structure your personal statement.	TRUE
It is okay to show off and exaggerate about your experience and skills.	FALSE
Write the statement in any person but ensure you remain consistent (First person, third person etc).	TRUE
You are only allowed to write one statement for all of your university choices.	TRUE
You should use others people's words such as quotes to back up your opinion and statements.	FALSE
You do not need to promote yourself in the personal statement as your referee can do this for you.	FALSE